On 23 September 2012 Mr. Mark William Harvey was arrested for trespassing on M&T Bank Football Field, which is owned by the Maryland Stadium Authority.

Further investigation found that Mr. Harvey jumped out of the stands and onto the field. Mr. Harvey then ran around the field causing a delay in the game. Mr. Harvey was wearing only a pair of sneakers, batman underwear and a white and blue cape. Mr. Harvey was stopped by SAFE and taken to the ground. He was then handcuffed and walked off the field.

Mr. Harvey jumped onto the field from section 132 at the 2:00 min. warning in the second quarter. He was witnessed jumping onto the field by Mark Leichtman of SAFE.

There are 36 'Trespassing onto Field is Prohibited' signs posted in the stadium. This sign also states 'Violators are subject to arrest and Prosecution.' Also a sign is displayed on the jumbo screen during the 1st quarter which states 'Ravens fan, Trespassing onto the Field is Prohibited. Violators are Subject to Arrest and Prosecution.'

Same was then taken to the police command post and charged. Mr. Harvey was previously arrested on April 6, 2012 for jumping onto the field at oriole Park at Camden Yard. The ASA declined to press charges for that offence.

All events occurred in Baltimore City State of Maryland.
